Subject: [EXTERNAL]Notes from call

Hi Mike,

Here are my notes from the call. I'm not sure who else was on the call, so please either forward it to them, or send me their contact info and I will make sure they get it. Thank you!!

Nevada – Electors are all up to speed. All six electors are on board. 2 back ups in alternates in case they need additional, but they do not think they will need them. Noon on Monday. They have a friendly legislator who can get them in. They are prepared to do it on the steps if needed. Worst case scenario, they can use the GOP office. Two electors from the south who have committed to driving to the north and the other electors are within 15 minutes of the capitol and committed to being there at noon. Trying to get inside the building. Working to get a ceremonial photo. May have to do the paperwork somewhere else. Democrats are voting by Zoom. It's in the statute that they have to be in person.

Georgia – 16 electors 10 confirmed, 2 alternates, 4 unsure of status. Room reserved at legislature. Alternates can be accepted as electors by vote of the electors. One elector wife died yesterday, the other is hostile to the idea. He will have the forms this evening. Concern is access to building. Not working with a legislature who can help get access. Will need a back door option. Everyone will meet outside and go in together. Ken Cheesborough has documents.

Michigan – Problems getting into the capitol. Michigan is closed via covid guidance. Vote is supposed to happen in senate chamber. It's in control of democrats (popular vote). There have been death threats. 200 MI state police. Dems getting a police escort to cast ballots. Working to get MI senators and MI representatives, a committee, to let us meet in the committee room. 16 legislators substituted as electors.

We only need one real elector to show up, and the others can be replaced. Will do paperwork at MI GOP headquarters. Depends on police. Contingency is on the capitol steps. Will walk from GOP headquarters and vote on the steps.

Wisconsin – 10 electors contacted 9 out of 10 are confirmed. There will be one replacement. WI state law requires it be at the capitol, they are waiting for confirmation to be allowed inside. This will likely get done, but it's not finalized yet. Sherpa is Andrew Iverson. Staged a block away at party office.

Pennsylvania – 4 definite yeses out of 20. 7 back ups. Need to get in touch with more people who can be alternates. Not sure the updated language will be acceptable. It seems fine, but there are concerns. Waiting to hear from Mastriano's office about getting a room. Mayor may need to make a call. Still replacing electorates.

Arizona – All 11 electors are prepared to meet for Monday. Kelli Ward will be there. Access shouldn't be a problem. AZ law does not demand a specific location, so they can change location if building is closed.

New Mexico – They are reaching out to them to ask if they can throw this together by Monday.
